

For Export from Lebanon

Prohibited items: (not exhaustive list / most common prohibited items)

1. Substances and material that have indecent and immoral content
2. All types of narcotics
3. Explosives, arms, part of arms and ammunitions, sharp objects (knives, machetes, etc...) without a preapproved document (see below restrictions)

Prohibited valuable assets

1. Coins
2. Credit cards
3. All kinds of account & check books
4. Precious stones and high value jewelry including but not limited to gold, silver, platinum, and gems

Restrictions: (not exhaustive list / most common items that need preapproval)

1. License/number plates (sender has to be personally present in the customs offices in Beirut Sorting Center in order to send it)
2. Passports: from the General Directorate of General Security
3. Publications: from the General Directorate of General Security
4. Tobacco and electronic cigarettes: from Lebanon's Tobacco Regulatory Authority (refer below to prohibitions by country)
5. Pharmaceutical drugs, medications and food supplements: from the Ministry of Public Health (refer below to prohibitions by country)
6. Cosmetic products: from the Ministry of Public Health (refer below to prohibitions by country)
7. Laboratory substances for testing: from the Ministry of Public health
8. Any food stuff exceeding the minimum thresh hold: from the Ministry of Commerce (refer below to prohibitions by country)
9. Any chemical substance: from a local chemical expert
10. Plants and seeds: from the Ministry of Agriculture (refer below to prohibitions by country)
11. Explosives, Arms, part of arms and ammunitions, sharp objects (knife, machetes, etc.): from the Ministry of Interior and from the Ministry of Defense

“Export” Notes:

- For additional information on Lebanese Customs regulation, please refer to the following links:
 - Web site: <http://www.customs.gov.lb/customs/>
- General terms for the minimum threshold:
 - One or many packages including commercial goods addressed to one consignee in a one single customs clearance day and having a value exceeding one million Lebanese pounds (1,000,000 LBP including the postage fee) requires a customs declaration via a forwarding agent (Transitaire)
 - The minimum threshold for items declared as gift is 200,000 LBP
- Items packaging:
 - All sharp tools or substances that cause pollution or damage to mail should be packaged according to the content nature
 - Example: Any authorized liquid with a limited quantity should be well packaged with bubble wrap and inserted in a wooden box
- Airline security:
 - Clients are requested to abide by the airlines security guides avoiding the transportation of any:
 - Flammable liquids and gases such as:
 - Perfume
 - Aftershave
 - Acetone
 - Glue
 - Paint, Thinner, Solvent
 - Gasoline, Gas lighter
 - Alcohol
 - Corrosive material
 - Toxic and infectious substances
 - Electronic goods including lithium batteries